Re: Trinity Church, Myrtle Beach

Dear Wade:

In our recent conversations regarding ongoing threats by some congregations, including the congregation of Trinity Church, Myrtle Beach to withdraw their parishes from the Episcopal Diocese of South Carolina and The Episcopal Church, you have indicated that the Diocese will cooperate with the Church's efforts to gather historical and other information about Trinity Church, in particular, by providing copies of certain records maintained by the Diocese. Accordingly, I am writing respectfully to request that you send me copies of the following documents related to Trinity Church:

Charleston
Charlotte
Columbia
Greensboro
Greenville
Hilton Head
Myrtle Beach

1. Any document reflecting the recordation of a mortgage on Trinity Church property;
2. Trinity Church original corporate charter, and all later amendments;
3. Trinity Church original by-laws, and all later amendments;
4. Documents reflecting the founding of Trinity Church as a parish (such as a petition by the congregation) and any record of diocesan action on the petition;
5. Documents showing Trinity Church participation in diocesan programs (such as insurance);

6. Documents showing requests by Trinity Church for consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee to the alienation encumbrance of real property; or
7. Documents reflecting the consecration of Trinity Church property;
8. Documents reflecting installations of rectors at Trinity Church by the Bishop; and
9. Deeds and mortgages to Trinity Church property.

I will be glad to inspect and copy these documents at the Diocesan office or at your office or in the way most convenient to you.

I look forward to working with you in connection with this and other matters related to the relationship between the Diocese and The Episcopal Church. As always, please call me if we need to talk about this request or other ones that we will be making.

With best wishes and thanks, I am

Sincerely,

Thomas S. Tisdale
